Question 1: What are the required courses?

A Writing Studio Course:

CAS 100 course descriptions or WRT 105 course description (for Native Speakers of English)

—OR—

ENL courses (for Non-native Speakers of English)

If you have questions regarding ENL courses, please contact Youmie Kim (ykim27@syr.edu) or Matthew Hammill (mjhammil@syr.edu), ESOL Language Co-Coordinator by email or at 315-443-9484

NOTE: If you took a Writing course at your previous institution, please review the transfer credit evaluation you received to see if that course was awarded to you as a direct equivalent to our WRT 105 or 205.

If it was not, you will need to email a copy of the course syllabus AND a completed Writing Petition to casadvising@syr.edu. Please include your college advisor on the email. You will receive the result of the petition within 10 business days.

Question 2: Do I take a Language or Math Placement Exam?

First term students are strongly encouraged to take placement exams, available on myslice, before making their course selections. If you expect to receive AP/IB or transfer credit for a language or math, please consult with your College Advisor before taking the placement exam.

If you have any additional questions about placement exams, please visit the IT website. Students who require disability-related accommodations should contact the Office of Disability Services by calling 315-443-4498.

Question 3: What language placement exams are available?

Language exams are available for Ancient Greek, Arabic, Chinese, French, German, Hebrew, Hindi, Italian, Japanese, Korean, Latin, Portuguese, Russian, Spanish, and Turkish. For certain languages, you may be required to take an additional exam if you place beyond the 101 level.

Question 4: What courses should I take if I have indicated an intended major?

If you have indicated a major, enter related courses on page 3 of FTES. See the list of majors and minors for descriptions of major requirements. If you have any questions about major requirements be sure to discuss these with your College Advisor.

Question 5: What courses should I take if I am in the Honors Program?

If you have been admitted to the Renée Crown University Honors Program, please refer to the special supplemental online registration information on your FTES. If you have questions about selecting Honors courses, call 1-800-295-2537 and ask to speak to Hanna Richardson or Karen Hall.

FTES Page 3: Course Selections

Answers to the questions below can help you make the appropriate selections on page 3 of FTES.

Question 8: How many credits should I take?

Students should take between 15 and 17 credits during their first semester. A minimum of 12 credits is considered full-time. Students can take up to 19 credits, however, this is generally not recommended in your first semester. Please speak with your College Advisor about balancing your course load.

Question 9: How do I know what courses to select?

As a student in the College of Arts and Sciences, you are required to complete your Liberal Arts Core requirements and your major requirements by the time you graduate. See the Liberal Arts Core Guidebook \(2017-2018\) and the College of Arts and Sciences Course Catalog for further information, as well as the Arts and Sciences Fall 2017 schedule of classes.

If you will be receiving credit for a particular course, do not enroll in it. If you do so, you may lose your transfer, AP or IB credit for that class. It is your responsibility to insure that all transcripts and score reports are sent directly to Syracuse University's Undergraduate Admissions Processing Center (Syracuse University, 621 Skytop Road, Suite 160, Syracuse, NY 13244-5290).

If you try to enroll in classes that are above the 300-level, whether for your core or your intended major, you will receive an error message that reads, "Subject Number not offered by your college". Your College Advisor must review and approve these selections before you will be allowed to register for them.

Question 10: What courses are recommended for Language or Quantitative Skills?

Students are required to complete a language or a math skillset. Some majors require proficiency in either language or math, so all students should review major requirements before making course selections.

Question 11: How do I begin to select courses for the Divisional Requirements?

See the Liberal Arts Core Guidebook \(2017-2018\) for an outline of the Core and a list of the courses that satisfy the various requirements. If you have additional questions, please ask your College Advisor.

Question 12: What else should I keep in mind when selecting courses?

Balance your course selections! In the divisional course section on page 3, students should pick a course from each divisional area (humanities, social sciences, natural sciences). Your FTES selections are not complete unless you list alternate courses.

The Schedule of Classes and the Course Catalog are also great resources for selecting classes. The Schedule of Classes lists every course offered in the fall 2017 semester alphabetically by college, while the Course Catalog provides detailed course descriptions.

Question 13: What courses should I take if I plan to enter the health or legal professions?

For further information about preparing for the health professions, visit the College's health professions advising website. For further information about preparing for the legal professions, please see the College's prelaw advising website.

Question 14: If I am a dual student in a Secondary Education teacher preparation program. What courses should I select?

As with all Arts and Sciences students, you must select courses required by the College, along with specific courses for your Secondary Education major. If you have questions, consult your College Advisor.

Answers to the questions below can help you make the appropriate selections on page 4 of FTES.

Question 15: I have made my selections and completed FTES. Now what?

Question 16: How do I contact my College Advisor?

All new students have a College Advisor who is available to provide guidance and support. Your College Advisor is indicated on Page 1 of your FTES. They will be contacting you by email, so be sure to set up your Syracuse email account (syr.edu), as that is the official communication method of the College.

Question 17: I have completed the steps. How do I finalize my plan?

Once you have discussed your course selections and overall academic plan with your College Advisor, you may alter or amend your FTES entries. When you complete them on all pages, submit your selections. Your FTES Course Selections must be finalized by the July 3rd deadline.

Please note, the deadline to submit your Registration Materials is listed as July 3rd. However, if you matriculate into the College past this deadline, you should still submit your course selections in FTES. Once you have submitted, we will assist you in creating a schedule prior to Opening Weekend.
