

SYRACUSE UNIVERSITY

College of Arts & Sciences

Advising & Career Services

Clinical and Volunteer Experience

An important aspect in the preparation for medical school is clinical and volunteer experience. Syracuse University students are at a great advantage because the university is located in close proximity to many health facilities. Once established academically, prehealth students are encouraged to explore the medical community. Below are nearby healthcare facilities that may offer clinical and volunteer experience:

Local Hospitals

Crouse Hospital

315- 470-7571

Volunteer programs

SUNY Upstate Medical University

Rhonda M. Butler; ButlerR@upstate.edu

315- 464-5180

Volunteer programs

VA Medical Center

Sheri Valle

315-425-4898

sheri.valle@va.gov

Volunteer programs

St. Joseph's Hospital Health Center

315-448-5186

Volunteer programs

Clinical Places of Interest

Syracuse Community Health Center

Sheri Owens; sd1@schcny.com

315-476-7921, ext. 2602

Volunteer programs

National Kidney Foundation of CNY

315- 476-0311

CNY Kidney Foundation

American Red Cross of Central New York

315-234-2200

Volunteer programs

Francis House

Rea Carver; rcarver@francishouseny.org

315- 475- 5422

Francis House

Amaus Medical Services at Cathedral

315-424-1911

Amaus Medical Services

The Centers at St. Camillus

315-488-2951

The Centers at St. Camillus

James Square Health and Rehabilitation Centre

315-474-1561

James Square Health and Rehabilitation Centre

The Nottingham—A Senior Living Community

315-445-9242

The Nottingham

The Rosamond Gifford Zoo

Ellen Vaughn

(315) 435-8511, ext. 112

Email: evaughn@rosamondgiffordzoo.org

The Rosamond Gifford Zoo

EMS Training in New York State

NYS Department of Health

EMS Training in New York State